FRENCH CABINET RESIGNED THIS AFTERNOON

DRAMATIC FIGHT OF SEVERAL DAYS COMES TO CLIMAX

CENTERED IN REMOVAL OF FINANCE MINISTER CAILLAUX FROM POWER

PAINLEVE PRESENTS JOINT RESIGNATION TO PRES. DOUMERGUE

By A. L. BRADFORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Oct. 27.—The French cabinet resigned this afternoon.

Thus Premier Painleve and his associates brought to a climax a dramatic fight of several days which centered in removing Finance Minister Caillaux from power.

Earlier in the day the cabinet had held a brief meeting but without action.

However, from within its councils came word that the resignation collectively of the entire cabinet was impending.

The actual resignation was made around two o'clock.

Painleve went alone to President Doumergue and presented the joint resignation.

President Doumergue accepted the cabinet's resignation.

The cabinet issued a statement saying its resignation followed the conviction that it was impossible to carry out its program without the certainty of a stable majority. This was manifestly a suggestion that Caillaux's financial measures would be unacceptable to the chamber majority.

Caillaux yesterday refused to be forced out alone. Instead he told Painleve and Foreign Secretary Briand that if he were to fall then the whole cabinet must go too. It was virtually a defy to them to proceed with driving him from public life, for he warned them that unless the whole regime retired it would fall before the French chamber later.

Rumors current today suggested that Painleve would seek to reform the cabinet and would placate the socialists by taking in as justice minister the former premier, Edouard Herriot.

Resignation of the cabinet was caused primarily by two factors.

First, there was dissatisfaction with the state of French finances, arising from the failure of the French internal loan to come up to expectations and from the fear of new inflation in any measures Caillaux could present. He had been accused in some quarters of failing to take sufficiently strong measures to cope with a situation requiring drastic remedies. And he was opposed to a capital levy as desired by the group which the government relied upon in parliament for its support.

Secondly, there was much displeasure with Caillaux for failing to achieve at Washington a settlement of France's debt to America although Sunday Caillaux suggested that it would not be many months before a real agreement would be forthcoming.

President Doumergue up to tonight had commissioned nobody officially with formation of the new cabinet. He consulted both President Desleves of the senate and President Herriot of the chamber, apparently with a view to ascertaining parliament's temper toward various possible leaders of the new cabinet.

Either Briand or Painleve appear likely to head the new regime.

CHARRED BODIES OF AGED COUPLE ARE FOUND NEAR TREASURE

Sutton, W. Va., Oct. 27.—(UP)—The charred bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Shingleton were found today in their cabin near here. An autopsy revealed they had been murdered. The money was the couple's life time savings and authorities believe they were slain trying to preserve it from a robber. Both were aged.

A man who posed as the Shingletons' friend and known to have visited them yesterday is being sought.

ITALY'S DEBT FUNDING LIKE THAT OF POLAND

By JOSEPH S. WASNY
United Press Staff Correspondent

Washington, Oct. 27.—Italy will be requested to settle her $2,138,671,704.91 war debt to the United States on terms similar to those granted Poland, Latvia and Czechoslovakia. It was learned at the treasury department today.

Experts who have studied Italy's capacity to pay, believe she is unable to liquidate her debt on the British basis, but that she is capable of settling in full on slightly more lenient terms.

Italy, up to the close of the world war, was advanced $1,647,997,050.16 in cash from the sale of Liberty bonds. Accrued interest at 5 per cent on the debt now totals $490,674,654.81.

In six years the Italians have paid but $64,852.94 on the principal and $57,598,652.21 in interest.

Headed by Count Volpi, the Italian debt commission will arrive in New York Saturday night.

PLAN TO SWEEP AWAY THE WAR EXCISE TAXES

ADVANCED TODAY BY REPRESENTATIVE JACK GARNER AT COMMITTEE HEARING

URGES TOTAL TAX REDUCTION BE INCREASED TO
$500,000,000

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 27.—A plan to sweep away the war excise taxes was advanced today by Representative Jack Garner, ranking minority member of the house ways and means committee. Following the strenuous appeals, which have been made in hearings before the committee by manufacturers of automobiles, jewelry, firearms, photographic supplies and others, Garner announced a scheme in opposition to the Mellon plan whereby all these taxes might be eliminated.

Garner's proposal would use the money, with which Secretary Mellon proposes to retire the national debt to enlarge the proposed tax reduction from $300,000,000 to $500,000,000. Instead of paying off the debt in 25 years, Garner would wait for 62 years.

"This is the only way to bring this country back to taxes of prewar proportions," Garner told the United Press. "If the plan of Secretary Mellon for only a $300,000,000 tax reduction prevails the taxes on automobiles and other excise taxes cannot be repealed."

The major portion of the tax hearings have been concluded and four days remain before the committee begins actual drafting of the new bill.

The only witness scheduled for today was Dr. Joseph J. Klein, tax expert of New York City, who was to make suggestions for increasing the effectiveness of the board of tax appeals.

Other hearings are to be held in Denver, Kansas City, San Francisco and other western and midwestern cities.

Mrs. Evelyn Geschwind is charged with first degree murder in connection with the slaying of her husband, Frank Geschwind, August 31. The man was stabbed to death.

The defense is expected to build its case on the contention that Geschwind committed suicide and to attempt to prove that the defendant is physically unable to strike a blow hard enough to have inflicted the fatal wound.

Two witnesses were heard late yesterday after completion of the jury. Important testimony is expected today. Miss Elizabeth Owens, assistant county attorney, will question witnesses.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 27.—(UP)—Snow fell here again today and the temperature dropped to 25 degrees above zero.

Figgis' death follows by eight days that of Rita North, a young dancing teacher of Hendon, who declared before she died in the maternity ward of a hospital that the Irish statesman was her husband.

It also recalls the suicide of his wife who shot herself in a taxi cab in the Dublin mountains less than a year ago.

By WILLIAM J. McEVROY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 27.—With its legal preparations completed, Colonel William Mitchell's staff of attorneys today weighed the qualifications of various members of the court martial to sit as jurors during the history-making proceedings.

Two of the generals selected to try Mitchell probably will be challenged by the defense counsel. The name of Brigadier General A. J. Bowley, commander of Fort Bragg, N. C., has figured prominently in speculation and discussion of possible challenges.

Despite denial of intention to challenge him, the report persists that his removal from the court will be sought.

The identity of the second general to be challenged had not been revealed but it is reported he is of the highest ranking members.

TO ELIMINATE POLLUTION OF THE MISSISSIPPI

MINNEAPOLIS TAKES FIRST STEPS TOWARDS SOLVING PROBLEM

CITY COUNCIL VOTES $5,000 FOR A BACTERIOLOGICAL
SURVEY

Minneapolis, Oct. 27.—(UP)—Minneapolis took first steps today toward eliminating pollution of the Mississippi river.

The city council voted $5,000 for a bacteriological survey of the river on its course through the Twin Cities. St. Paul will divide the cost of the examination with Minneapolis.

The survey will be conducted in co-operation with the United States Public Health Service.

Action on the bacteriological survey follows a meeting held at Red Wing last Saturday in which steps for the purification of the Upper Mississippi waters were discussed. Committees of the Minnesota and Wisconsin legislatures met with interested persons at the down river city.

The Red Wing meeting sent petitions to the United States Public Health Service and cabinet members asking for government aid in solving the pollution problem. It was pointed out the fish life is practically dead in the upper river and claimed that the public health is menaced.

Congressional action probably will be needed to eventually purify the Father of Waters. Cities along the river may be forced to install sewage disposal plants.

CHICAGO BEER RUNNING COMBINE IS PROSECUTED

CHICAGO POLICE, POLITICIANS AND OFFICIALS OF PEORIA,
ETC., IN PROBE

ALSO OFFICIALS OF 5 RAILWAYS
DRAWN INTO THE NET-WORK

By EDWARD C. DERR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Wholesale prosecutions were forecast today in Chicago's $800,000 a month beer running syndicate. Scores of Chicago policemen, powerful politicians and officials of Peoria, Joliet and Aurora, Ill., have been drawn in the investigation, along with officials of five great railroads, federal authorities made known today.

District Attorney Edwin Olson said today he would go before the federal grand jury tomorrow with evidence on which he hopes to indict scores of individuals and the railroads for conspiracy to ship vast quantities of beer into Chicago. Value of the shipments for the past year has been estimated in excess of $9,000,000.

Thomas Keene, city collector and long an intimate friend of Mayor Dever, was questioned by federal authorities. While they refused to divulge the nature of the examination, it was indicated they were trying to find out what part Keene played in the assignment of police captains. Officials charge that captains "winked" at the passage of caravans of beer through their territory and that in many cases uniformed motorcycle policemen were detailed to guide and guard the booze.

Captain J. T. Huson, in charge of the New York Central railroad's special police, and 11 of his men also were examined. Some of the witnesses implicated certain officials of Peoria, Joliet and Aurora. These officials and railroad employees aided in getting beer shipments to Chicago, it was charged.

ST. PAUL'S RADIUM HUNT FOR $8,600 LOST, CONTINUES

St. Paul, Oct. 27.—(UP)—St. Paul's radium hunt was still on today.

Somewhere in the maze of sewers leading from St. Joseph's hospital to the river is a little capsule of the precious radium valued at $8,600. It was owned by Dr. Arnold Schwyzer.

Professor Henry A. Erikson, of the University of Minnesota, tinkered up an electrocope, with which he hopes to locate the missing pellet. Once located it would be comparatively easy to tear up pavements or perhaps raze a building to get at it, he said. Through air the ionization chamber would enable scientists to locate the radium at a distance of 75 to 100 feet. Professor Erikson said. But through water or earth this radium would be cut to 10 or 12 feet.

GRECO-BULGAR CONFLICT DEEMED SETTLED AFFAIR

LEAGUE OF NATIONS COUNCIL
CALLED A HALT OF HOSTILITIES

INCIPIENT WAR BETWEEN THE
TWO NATIONS BELIEVED SUBSIDED

By MINOTT SAUNDERS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Oct. 27.—The Greco-Bulgarian border conflict was deemed today definitely ended.

The League of Nations council action in calling for a halt of hostilities, with definite proof Thursday that firing had ceased and troops were back on their home territory, was held here as settling the incipient war insofar as continuance of offensives was concerned.

With both nations agreed to heed the council's virtual ultimatum and with steps already taken to put the demands into effect it was felt in League quarters that the League had demonstrated such troubles could be settled peacefully.

Of course, the threat of dire consequences hangs over the heads of Bulgaria and Greece should they now violate the council's orders. These orders require that by tonight the warring nations shall have given definite, ironclad orders to their troops to quit fighting and to retire behind their own boundaries.

In accordance with the council's decision to have allied military men investigate on the ground, Major Giles, British military attaché at Athens, has been sent to the frontier to investigate and report whether Greece was withdrawing her troops as required. The French and Italian attaches are likewise en route.

HARROWING STORIES ARE TOLD BY THE SURVIVORS OF ACCIDENT

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 27.—(UP)—Fifteen persons are known to be dead and more than a score injured, several seriously, as a result of the derailment of the "Sunnyland" crack Frisco flyer, which plunged over an embankment near Victoria, Miss., at 6:30 A. M. today.

Carrying passengers from Florida to Memphis, Kansas City and points west, most of them asleep in Pullmans, the express was wrecked when the car behind the engine broke loose and hurtled down a 30 foot slope, dragging baggage and passenger coaches after it.

Rescue Workers Toil

While rescue crews toiled among the wreckage and brought those injured to Memphis hospitals, train dispatchers estimated that the total dead might reach ten.

Eye witnesses told of the scene of horror as the cars which they said left the rails while the flyer was making 60 miles an hour, piled up at the foot of the embankment.

All available ambulances were sent to Victoria to render aid. Victoria is 32 miles south of Memphis. The accident occurred, according to reports here, when the train jumped the track.

A later report said that as many as 25 may be dead.

The wreck took place on a straight strip of track. The train was running at high speed when the first baggage car broke loose from the engine and hurtled down the steep embankment carrying the second baggage car, coaches and sleepers with it.

Tangled Mass of Wreckage

All were heaped into a tangled mass of wreckage when residents of the small town of Victoria reached the scene.

Groans of mangled victims were heard on every hand. Rescuers worked feverishly to clear away the wreckage and save the injured. Schools and churches were turned into hospitals as the victims were carried from the scene of the disaster.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 27.—Wisconsin was in the grip of winter weather today as the mercury dropped below the freezing mark. Northern Wisconsin is blanketed in snow as a result of the fall during the past few days.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Winter held sway in the middle west today. Sections of Minnesota and Iowa reported sleet and snow with considerable damage to wire facilities due to sleet and wind.

In Chicago the thermometer dropped to a low of 28 during the night. At 9 A. M. today the thermometer stood at 31. The cold will continue for at least 24 hours, the weather man said.

The coldest part of the country is at Havre, Mont., where the thermometer is two above zero, the weather bureau reported.

In Calgary, Alberta, the thermometer dropped to two below zero. Helena, Mont., reported 19 inches of snow.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 27.—The snowfall in Nebraska ranged from two to 10 inches. Near blizzards were reported in central Nebraska. The snowfall covered practically the entire state.

Winner, S. D., just across the Nebraska line, reported a temperature of 12 degrees. The mercury at Kearney had dropped 13 degrees to 19 above in an hour with prospects of a further decline.

DARRELL FIGGIS, IRISH AUTHOR, IS FOUND DEAD

London, Oct. 27.—(UP)—Darrell Figgis, Irish author and a leading member of the Free State parliament, was found dead today in his room in Bloomsbury, a residential section of London.

The Evening Star says that the room was filled with gas from an open jet.

Figgis' death follows by eight days that of Rita North, a young dancing teacher of Hendon, who declared before she died in the maternity ward of a hospital that the Irish statesman was her husband.

It also recalls the suicide of his wife who shot herself in a taxicab in the Dublin mountains less than a year ago.

MITCHELL LEGAL FORCE WEIGHS QUALIFICATIONS

CONSIDER VARIOUS MEMBERS OF COURT MARTIAL TO SIT AS JURORS

TWO OF GENERALS ON JURY MAY BE CHALLENGED BY DEFENSE COUNSEL

By WILLIAM J. McEVROY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 27.—With its legal preparations completed, Colonel William Mitchell's staff of attorneys today weighed the qualifications of various members of the court martial to sit as jurors during the history-making proceedings.

Two of the generals selected to try Mitchell probably will be challenged by the defense counsel. The name of Brigadier General A. J. Bowley, commander of Fort Bragg, N. C., has figured prominently in speculation and discussion of possible challenges.

Despite denial of intention to challenge him, the report persists that his removal from the court will be sought.

The identity of the second general to be challenged had not been revealed but it is reported he is of the highest ranking members.

FARMER DROWNED WHILE HUNTING

Fergus Falls, Minn., Oct. 27.—(UP)—A. E. Dahl, farmer, who lived near Ashby, was drowned in Pelican lake while hunting ducks late yesterday.

His boat was not completely overturned and it is thought that Dahl, who was subject to heart attacks, fell into the lake while attempting to retrieve a duck and died from the shock of the cold water.

SALES OF ASPIRIN ARE RESTRICTED

St. Paul, Oct. 27.—(UP)—Sale of aspirin at restaurants, cigar stores, confectioneries and other unauthorized stores is banned under the state law, Attorney General C. L. Hilton ruled today.

The Theopold-Reid company, Fairbank, asked an opinion. Aspirin may be sold only in drug stores or by stores where a registered pharmacist is in charge, Hilton said.

STREET RAILWAY CO. TO START BUS LINES

St. Paul, Oct. 27.—(UP)—When the street railway fare controversy is settled before the state railroad and warehouse commission, the Minneapolis Street Railway company will start a number of bus lines it was reported today.

Bus lines will be operated as feeders to the street railway lines in outlying sections and some lines will parallel street car lines. Transfer privileges will be granted on some bus lines, but on parallel lines a higher rate of fare is expected.

WOMAN TIRES OF BEING A "HOME BREW WIDOW"

Chicago, Oct. 27.—(UP)—Mrs. Ruth M. Sweeney, sister of Marilyn Miller, the actress, wants a divorce, because she is tired of being a "home brew widow," according to charges on file here today.

Mrs. Sweeney charges that her husband, a physician, spent too much of his time brewing in the basement and too little with her.

MINNEAPOLIS TAKES FIRST STEPS TOWARDS SOLVING PROBLEM

CITY COUNCIL VOTES $5,000 FOR A BACTERIOLOGICAL SURVEY

Minneapolis, Oct. 27.—(UP)—Minneapolis took first steps today toward eliminating pollution of the Mississippi river.

The city council voted $5,000 for a bacteriological survey of the river on its course through the Twin Cities. St. Paul will divide the cost of the examination with Minneapolis.

The survey will be conducted in co-operation with the United States Public Health Service.

Action on the bacteriological survey follows a meeting held at Red Wing last Saturday in which steps for the purification of the Upper Mississippi waters were discussed. Committees of the Minnesota and Wisconsin legislatures met with interested persons at the down river city.

The Red Wing meeting sent petitions to the United States Public Health Service and cabinet members asking for government aid in solving the pollution problem. It was pointed out the fish life is practically dead in the upper river and claimed that the public health is menaced.

Congressional action probably will be needed to eventually purify the Father of Waters. Cities along the river may be forced to install sewage disposal plants.

Vital Needs in Religious Education

Minneapolis.—Vision, concentration, organization and preparation are the vital needs in religious education, Dr. D. W. Kurtz, president of McPherson college, told delegates to the Minnesota conference of religious education here last night. Education, he said, is the only hope for solving the human problem.

CHICAGO POLICE, POLITICIANS AND OFFICIALS OF PEORIA, ETC., IN PROBE

ALSO OFFICIALS OF 5 RAILWAYS DRAWN INTO THE NET- WORK

By EDWARD C. DERR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Wholesale prosecutions were forecast today in Chicago's $800,000 a month beer running syndicate. Scores of Chicago policemen, powerful politicians and officials of Peoria, Joliet and Aurora, Ill., have been drawn in the investigation, along with officials of five great railroads, federal authorities made known today.

District Attorney Edwin Olson said today he would go before the federal grand jury tomorrow with evidence on which he hopes to indict scores of individuals and the railroads for conspiracy to ship vast quantities of beer into Chicago. Value of the shipments for the past year has been estimated in excess of $9,000,000.

Thomas Keene, city collector and long an intimate friend of Mayor Dever, was questioned by federal authorities. While they refused to divulge the nature of the examination, it was indicated they were trying to find out what part Keene played in the assignment of police captains. Officials charge that captains "winked" at the passage of caravans of beer through their territory and that in many cases uniformed motorcycle policemen were detailed to guide and guard the booze.

Captain J. T. Huson, in charge of the New York Central railroad's special police, and 11 of his men also were examined. Some of the witnesses implicated certain officials of Peoria, Joliet and Aurora. These officials and railroad employees aided in getting beer shipments to Chicago, it was charged.

ST. PAUL'S RADIUM HUNT FOR $8,600 LOST, CONTINUES

St. Paul, Oct. 27.—(UP)—St. Paul's radium hunt was still on today.

Somewhere in the maze of sewers leading from St. Joseph's hospital to the river is a little capsule of the precious radium valued at $8,600. It was owned by Dr. Arnold Schwyzer.

Professor Henry A. Erikson, of the University of Minnesota, tinkered up an electroscope, with which he hopes to locate the missing pellet. Once located it would be comparatively easy to tear up pavements or perhaps raise a building to get at it, he said. Through air the ionization chamber would enable scientists to locate the radium at a distance of 75 to 100 feet, Professor Erikson said. But through water or earth this radium would be cut to 10 or 12 feet.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS COUNCIL CALLED A HALT OF HOSTILITIES

INCIPENT WAR BETWEEN THE TWO NATIONS BELIEVED SUBSIDED

By MINOTT SAUNDERS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Oct. 27.—The Greco-Bulgar border conflict was deemed today definitely ended.

The League of Nations council action in calling for a halt of hostilities, with definite proof Thursday that firing had ceased and troops were back on their home territory, was held here as settling the incipient war insofar as continuance of offensives was concerned.

With both nations agreed to heed the council's virtual ultimatum and with steps already taken to put the demands into effect it was felt in League quarters that the League had demonstrated such troubles could be settled peacefully.

Of course, the threat of dire consequences hangs over the heads of Bulgaria and Greece should they now violate the council's orders. These orders require that by tonight the warring nations shall have given definite, ironclad orders to their troops to quit fighting and to retire behind their own boundaries.

In accordance with the council's decision to have allied military men investigate on the ground, Major Giles, British military attaché at Athens, has been sent to the frontier to investigate and report whether Greece was withdrawing her troops as required. The French and Italian attaches are likewise en route.

GREECE ORDERS HER TROOPS TO EVACUATE

15 KNOWN TO BE DEAD, SCORE ARE BADLY INJURED

TRAIN PLUNGES OVER 30 FOOT EMBANKMENT WHILE GOING 60 MILES AN HOUR

HARROWING STORIES ARE TOLD BY THE SURVIVORS OF ACCIDENT

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 27.—(UP)—Fifteen persons are known to be dead and more than a score injured, several seriously, as a result of the derailment of the "Sunnyland" crack Frisco flyer, which plunged over an embankment near Victoria, Miss., at 6:30 A. M. today.

Carrying passengers from Florida to Memphis, Kansas City and points west, most of them asleep in Pullmans, the express was wrecked when the car behind the engine broke loose and hurtled down a 30 foot slope, dragging baggage and passenger coaches after it.

Rescue Workers Toil

While rescue crews toiled among the wreckage and brought those injured to Memphis hospitals, train dispatchers estimated that the total dead might reach ten.

Eye witnesses told of the scene of horror as the cars which they said left the rails while the flyer was making 60 miles an hour, piled up at the foot of the embankment.

All available ambulances were sent to Victoria to render aid. Victoria is 32 miles south of Memphis. The accident occurred, according to reports here, when the train jumped the track.

A later report said that as many as 25 may be dead.

Plunged Over Embankment

The train was described as plunging over a 30 foot embankment. It consisted of 11 cars, including two baggage cars, chair cars and Pullmans. All but the rear Pullman and the engine rolled down the embankment, according to word reaching here.

Most of the passengers were said to have been from Birmingham and Memphis.

The accident occurred at 6:30 A. M. today.

The wreck took place on a straight strip of track. The train was running at high speed when the first baggage car broke loose from the engine and hurtled down the steep embankment carrying the second baggage car, coaches and sleepers with it.

Tangled Mass of Wreckage

All were heaped into a tangled mass of wreckage when residents of the small town of Victoria reached the scene.

Groans of mangled victims were heard on every hand. Rescuers worked feverishly to clear away the wreckage and save the injured. Schools and churches were turned into hospitals as the victims were carried from the scene of the disaster.

The identified dead:

Lloyd Wagner, Tupelo, Miss.
T. W. Ryan, conductor, Memphis.
Miss Olive Webster, 28, Oxford, Miss.

J. Burnett, newsboy.

From Town Pump to Modern Plumbing

Forty-four years ago on October 27, this bank was established. Could the original officers forecast the change from the old town pump to the modern plumbing now in every home? Could they foresee electric lighting in homes and farms, our network of well paved streets, or the modern stores, and office buildings?

They had vision and faith in Brainerd. Their bank has freely supported progressive movements that have brought this great advancement.

Whatever new developments are yet to come, you may depend on the First National Bank to play its usual leading part.

From Town Pump to Modern Plumbing

Forty-four years ago on October 27, this bank was established. Could the original officers forecast the change from the old town pump to the modern plumbing now in every home? Could they foresee electric lighting in homes and farms, our network of well paved streets, or the modern stores, and office buildings?

They had vision and faith in Brainerd. Their bank has freely supported progressive movements that have brought this great advancement.

Whatever new developments are yet to come, you may depend on the First National Bank to play its usual leading part.

4,800 People Crowd Into Springfield Municipal Auditorium to Hear Concert

5 MEN PLAY 189 BELLS

Will Appear in Brainerd on Saturday, November 14th—Tickets
Now on Sale

The following testimonial will be of interest to Brainerd people:

Springfield, Mass.
"The Scandinavian Bell Ringers, five men, playing 125 bells, (now 189), ranging in weight from a few ounces to fifteen pounds, (now 18), came to our Municipal Auditorium on Dec. 28, 1923, more or less as an experiment.

"They were to furnish the musical program for one of our Sunday afternoon meetings and concerts. Dr.
Charles R. Brown of Yale was the speaker. The attendance was thirty-five hundred. They captured the vast audience from the first bell.

"We had them for a return engagement two weeks later, Jan. 13, and crowded 4,800 into the building and turned hundreds away. We have engaged them for next season.

"They are a sensation without being in the least sensational. Their program is classical, and spiritual.
We wish for them a great future in America."

Springfield Young Men's Christian Association.
(Signed) B. A. HOOVER,
General Secretary.

Brainerd and vicinity will have an opportunity to hear these five wonderful artists play the largest set of hand bells in the world, consisting of 189 bells ranging in weight from a few ounces to 18 pounds, when they appear at the First Methodist church on Saturday evening, Nov. 14, at 8:15 o'clock, under the auspices of the Swedish Bethany church.

The bells which are placed on a large table, are not struck like a gong, as many suppose, but are lifted from the table and rung by these skilled musicians and the melody and harmony produced is far beyond what words can tell. Tickets are now on sale by members of the

Greeted With Good Audience at Opening Lecture at Scandia
Hall

Evangelist Christensen was greeted with a good audience at his opening lecture Sunday evening at Scandia hall, corner of Norwood and Thirteenth streets.

The speaker stands firmly on the side of fundamentalism in what he terms the great battle of the churches. In presenting his subject Sunday evening he showed that it is impossible to discard the record of the first chapter of Genesis without discarding the whole Bible, as all of the various writers of the Scriptures present the same view of creation.

Mr. Christensen expressed no fear for the Bible, stating that it had withstood much worse "hammering" than it is now getting, yet it is still the most widely circulated book, and the hammers will be silenced in this attack as they have in the past.

The next of Mr. Christensen's lectures will be given on Wednesday evening, on the subject, "The World United, is it Possible?" This address will be illustrated with lantern slides and will prove of special interest.
There will be lectures on other highlights this week to be announced later. The public is invited to attend these interesting discussions.

ness Session to Follow

The Chamber of Commerce will hold its first meeting of the fall season on tomorrow, Wednesday evening, with a dinner meeting at 6:15 o'clock.

The dinner will be in charge of Frank G. Hall, chairman of the house committee, and his able assistants. Mr. Hall has had charge of many similar events in the past, each one of which has been a decided success, and tomorrow evening's dinner will be no exception to the rule.

An excellent menu has been arranged and will be prepared by W.
J. Garvey, consisting of the following appetizing viands:

Roast beef, brown gravy
Mashed potatoes, mashed squash
Cabbage salad, Parker house rolls
Apple pie, Coffee

A short business meeting will follow the dinner, and a number of important matters are to be disposed of. Plans will be presented for the activities of the coming winter and a resume of the past season's work will be made.

Several committees are to make reports at this meeting, among them the special committee in charge of the new Athletic park. This committee has completed its work very creditably, and will make a very interesting report on its recent accomplishments.

President F. H. Gruenhagea wishes to impress upon the members of the Chamber the fact that there is much work to do after the summer's vacation, and asks that all business men make a special effort to be present at all meetings of the organization beginning tomorrow night, in an effort to carry out a worthwhile program this year.

Everyone interested in community development, whether a member of the Chamber or not, is invited and urged to attend Wednesday's supper.

"PAST MATRONS' NIGHT"

Class of Candidates to be Initiated,
Followed by Program, Danc-

About 50 members of the local Eastern Star will motor to Staples this evening, where they will be the guests of Orchid chapter at a special entertainment, prepared in their honor.

The Staples chapter will observe its "Past Matrons' Night" this eve-chairs, and exemplifying the work.

Past matrons of the Brainerd chapter are to be the honor guests.

The work will begin at 8 o'clock with the initiation of a class of candidates. Following this will be a short program, dancing and refreshments.

The Staples chapter was entertained at Brainerd last winter, and tonight's entertainment is a return courtesy. The order in the neighboring town has a reputation of being a delightful host, the local chapter having visited there on several former occasions.

Members of Alpha chapter who are driving their cars to Staples this evening, and who have room for extra passengers, are asked to advise Mrs.
C. H. Mills of this fact, so that transportation may be arranged for those who now have no means of making the trip. It is planned to leave for Inhabitants of the little town of Victoria, awakened by the crash and roar as the Sunnyland went over the embankment, were the first to give aid to the wreck victims.

Those who arrived first at the scene found that the sleepers from which came cries of the victims, imprisoned many helpless passengers. The cars had telescoped and piled up at the foot of the steep slope.

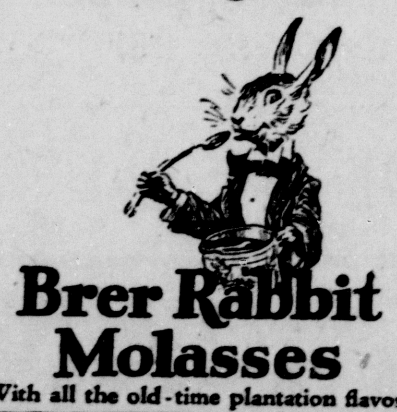

When the first rescue train arrived on the scene from Memphis the people of Victoria were chopping free the pinned passengers and rendering what aid they could to those who were most seriously hurt.

Story of Survivor
W. G. Davis, of Oxford, Miss., was one of the first injured brought to Memphis. "We were traveling at 60 miles an hour when the train suddenly gave a lurch and car after car toppled down the embankment," he said.

"Cars were piled on top of one another. I saw several dead and a number of others who were badly mangled. Passing motorists and farmers living nearby came to the

EASTERN STAR TO STAPLES

Local Lodge Members Will Motor to Neighboring Town and Visit Chapter There

"PAST MATRONS' NIGHT"

Class of Candidates to be Initiated, Followed by Program, Dancing, Refreshments

About 50 members of the local Eastern Star will motor to Staples this evening, where they will be the guests of Orchid chapter at a special entertainment, prepared in their honor.

The Staples chapter will observe its "Past Matrons' Night" this evening, past matrons filling all of the chairs, and exemplifying the work. Past matrons of the Brainerd chapter are to be the honor guests.

The work will begin at 8 o'clock with the initiation of a class of candidates. Following this will be a short program, dancing and refreshments.

The Staples chapter was entertained at Brainerd last winter, and tonight's entertainment is a return courtesy. The order in the neighboring town has a reputation of being a delightful host, the local chapter having visited there on several former occasions.

Members of Alpha chapter who are driving their cars to Staples this evening, and who have room for extra passengers, are asked to advise Mrs. C. H. Mills of this fact, so that transportation may be arranged for those who now have no means of making the trip. It is planned to leave for Staples shortly before 7 o'clock this evening.

rescue with axes and shovels and ex-ticated those who were trapped. I was only slightly hurt and aided in rescuing Miss Olive Webster, a nurse from Oxford, who suffered a broken hip. We were brought to Memphis in a car.

"The two rear Pullmans in the train apparently did not leave the rails. I saw nothing of the engine. The report was that a split rail caused the accident."

Miss Olive Webster, 28, superintendent of Culley hospital, Oxford, Miss., died in a Memphis hospital.

Injured received at local hospitals by 11 A. M. were:

Mrs. J. W. Campbell 57, Wynne, Ark., fractured wrist. Miss Bessie Jordan, cut and bruised.

Mrs. Charles Bevin, 28, Topeka, Kas., cut and bruised.

W. J. Davis, Oxford, Miss., cut and bruised.

Engineer and Fireman Escape
R. B. Merring, engineer, and C. P. Young, fireman, both of Memphis, had miraculous escapes when the engine and tender leaped over the split rail and remained upright.

The cars behind broke loose and rolled down the bank piling atop each other.

J. W. Ryan of Elmira, N. Y., conductor of the train, who was riding in the day coach, was among those killed.

Merring and Young declared the wreck was unavoidable, being due to a defective rail. Although their nerves were shattered, both remained on duty and piloted a five car relief train to Memphis with victims of the wreck.

PROGRESS IN THE KITCHEN

THE kitchen has been termed room No. 1 by a lecturer on household economics. Room No. 1 has had few improvements, few inventions to lighten the burden of the housewife. True, we find the gas stove or the electric range, but when it comes to improvements in kitchen utensils, few changes are noted.

In the days of George Washington, the kitchen was an important part of any home. We noted at Mt. Vernon, the array of culinary utensils, all heavily and very solidly built. The pots and pans and kettles were regular heat retainers.

In those days a kitchen was a real laboratory. The housewife had to be an independent person, well versed in all the chemistry and manufacturing ability of any food expert of today. There was no corner grocery with its can of baked beans, or canned soup or canned tomatoes.

The colonial housewife did her own cooking and canning and baking and even brewing and she had the proper utensils, massive in a way, but built so that the health and happiness exuding from the kitchen was constantly reflected in strong and sturdy men, women and children.

We see pots and pans and kettles these days, but the manufacturers in many cases have sacrificed that sturdy, heavy build of the colonial days and given us light material which cannot retain heat and which require constant watching on the part of the housewife, constant stirring and fussing about, to prevent burning contents.

And the home of today is to blame too. Many a housewife hates to prepare a dish that requires a slow fire and constant watching. And pancakes are coming into disfavor, for the manipulator of the pancake dough, the griddle artist, refuses to prepare such dainties, for like a galley slave she must stand at the stove, barely able to supply the incessant demand of Pa and the children, until she has little strength left in her limbs to bake a few for herself.

The cheaper cuts of meat which require slow, steady roasting, are sacrificed for the high priced cuts which can be tossed into a pan and quickly fried. Gradually we as a nation are losing much of the culinary intelligence of our forefathers who knew the value of a slow fire. Take the lovely sauerkraut for instance. It can only be palatably prepared when it is cooked slowly from early morning to evening and then served. And Andy Gieriet, noted chef, says the sauerkraut is still finer flavored, if you freeze it after the first cooking and then cook it again before finally serving.

Yes, the American habit to rush things to a conclusion, has spelled the finish for some of the finest cooking of the old days.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, CONDITIONS

THE Miami, Florida, Tribune says that high rents and excessive living costs in general are either going to force a general exodus of skilled mechanics out of Miami after November 1, when increased rates are scheduled to go into effect, or trade unions will be forced to band themselves together and demand increased wages. This conclusion is predicated on the statement of the secretary of the building trades council of Miami, who says there is a great dissatisfaction among skilled mechanics, and that the high rents are obliging workmen to sacrifice many pleasures and comforts in order to make both ends meet. Many men are reporting that they are paying $5 and $6 a week to sleep on cots in screened porches.

The Miami Tribune says, also that portable houses erected on city property are contemplated by the chamber of commerce to relieve the congestion. The Parent-Teachers' associations are appealing to apartment house owners for accommodations, it is said in the Tribune, which quotes the superintendent of county schools as reporting that more than 100 teachers have resigned because they have no place to live.

These things do not reflect on Florida, and are not told to prove or disprove that Florida is a good place to live, at least in winter; or that the boom is justified or not justified. They are reported simply to show present conditions and to indicate the folly of regarding Florida as a place of refuge for the winter for any or all who may crave the mild winter, but who are not prepared to pay the price.

"Andy" Nelson, formerly of the Brainerd postoffice force, motored to Miami in his portable bungalow, taking the entire family along. Mr. Nelson is reported to have realized a neat profit on the sale of acreage he owned near Miami. The family is comfortably established and all able to work are getting big pay. They have not abandoned their home on wheels.

W. E. Lively is another Brainerd man who motored to Florida in his home-made bungalow and found it of inestimable benefit. It made him independent of hotels, boarding houses, flats, apartments, etc.

FIRST LOVE EXPLAINED

"FIRST love," as explained by Louise Townsend Nicoll, a writer in Century, is a funny affair. First love comes before the age of knowledge. It is the only love entirely unencumbered with ideas and preconceptions. How little it has to do with words, with talk! It knows no terms.

It is the thing itself from which terms and institutions have grown up. First lovers get love at first hand, instead of getting first the idea of romance into which to try to fit themselves and other people.

They seldom talk. They get acquainted in other ways—by being near each other, by looking at each other, by softly, shyly touching hands. They do things together—play games, run races. As watchful as small animals, they learn minutely each about the other. But they do not talk.

They give each other things, always in fair exchange, and wear them out with carrying about. When they must know facts to supplement their findings—they ask—short, blunt questions. Opinion and discussion have little play.

Everyone, if he searches carefully his own experience, can find one of these "first loves." Fragile as they are, they cannot endure criticism or ridicule. Miss Nicoll in her dissection of this species of love forgot to tell if it bore any relation to "calf love."

RED CROSS AID TO VETS MOUNTING

Heavier Demands for War Service Laid to New Legislation Granting Wide Benefits.

ACTIVE FORCES AIDED ALSO

Duty to Ex-Service and Service Men First Responsibility of the Red Cross.

A marked increase in the service given by the American Red Cross to ex-service men, through Chapters, hospitals, Government and Red Cross offices during the past year, and which volume is expected to be maintained during most of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1926, is shown in the reports of the war service activities of the organization, just completed.

Service to the disabled and to men now in active service continued to be one of the primary obligations of the Red Cross. The increased activities in this regard were attributed largely to the legislation giving new benefits to ex-service men.

The keystone of the Red Cross service lies in the Home Service work of the chapters to veterans and men still in service. At the close of the fiscal year June 30, 1925, 2,591 Chapters were active in this work and had expended approximately $2,237,000.

Included in their work was assistance to ex-service men in making out adjusted compensation papers, in the handling of claims reopened, or made possible under liberalized terms of the World War Veterans' Act of 1924; and in many other ways.

An unusual amount of legislation passed by Congress and State bodies has necessitated the issue of much new material in the past year. Legislation was passed during the year liberalizing conditions applying to hospitalization, compensation and other benefits under the Veterans' Bureau; this in turn has entailed reopening of many claims formerly disallowed, filing of many new ones, and many applications for hospitalization. The Claims Service at National Headquarters this year handled 17,596 in comparison with 12,910 cases the previous year.

Increased service to men in hospitals was noted, as well in the number of hospitals in which service was maintained by the organization. Due to new legislation an increase of over 6,000 patients were admitted for hospitalization, a new peak approximating that of March 1922. Since a large number of this group includes patients not eligible for compensation, the solution of their personal and family problems has involved careful study by the National Organization.

There are 30,000 disabled ex-service men in Government hospitals every day of the year, and their need has directly led to a revival of the best-known and perhaps most popular activity the Red Cross sponsored in war—a new campaign for knitted "Red Cross sweaters." These articles are among the few not furnished by the Government.

For the men still on active duty in the Army, Navy and Marines, the Red Cross during the year maintained Field Directors at all important stations, camps, and hospitals of these armed forces of the country.

A monthly average of 96,931 service and ex-service men were aided by the Red Cross during the year.

The man in service, and the man who has served his country are among the primary responsibilities for which the American Red Cross is chartered by Congress. Nevertheless it has many other obligations and it is on this basis that an appeal will be made for a larger enrollment than ever during the Annual Roll Call, Armistice Day, November 11, to November 25.

NEW JERSEY BOXING AUTHORITY TIES TO INVESTIGATE THE BOXING MATCH

10,000 FANS ROAR PROTEST AS BOUL FLASHES TO SUB. DEN END

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

New York, Oct. 27.—Official investigation by New Jersey boxing authorities is expected to follow the queer two minute victory which Harry Wills, negro heavyweight challenger, scored over Floyd Johnson, Iowa heavyweight, last night in Newark.

Ten thousand fans, who packed the big armory, roared in protest and derision when a towel came sailing in from Johnson's corner, before the contest had been given a good start.

Wills, following his usual style of holding with his long left arm and pounding the body at close quarters with his right, had backed Johnson into his corner and was plastering him with body punches when Charley Cook, Johnson's manager and chief second, tossed the towel in the ring.

Johnson was on his feet at the time and looked to be in no immediate danger and he was almost as surprised and as stunned as the crowd when the referee told him he was through for the evening.

He made a protest that he wanted to continue, but it was only a gesture and he seemed perfectly contented when he left the ring.

Platt Adams, New Jersey boxing inspector, ordered Johnson examined after the fight and he said that the doctors reported that the Iowa fighter had been weakened by punches to the stomach.

Cook defended his action in using the towel by saying that Johnson was out on his feet and that he might have been hurt fatally if Wills had a good shot at the jaw.

Wills lost a lot of prestige in the fight and he has yet to prove that he is entitled to the first chance for a match with Jack Dempsey.

New York, Oct. 27.—Jole Celmar almost had the privilege rarely accorded the untouted of coming from nowhere and dethroning a favorite.

The little Bronx boy recently was granted the opportunity of substituting for Johnny Dundee when a more or less convenient illness caused him to drop out of his bout with Babe Herman. The contract of meeting Herman is not one that most men at his weight would willingly accept, but Jole had nothing to lose and he snatched the assignment.

Jole, at 132 pounds, had a six-pound advantage over the Babe and he proceeded to make the most of it. Although he was facing a young man who claims he is the uncrowned king of the featherweight division, Celmar went at him with a vengeance and the bout was without dull moments.

And the crowd, who had accepted the substitution in a melancholy manner, evidently believing they were in for a listless ten rounds or less of seeing how far a promising young boxer can be slapped across the ring, immediately became partisan to Jole and were yelling for him at the finish, but the judges were unable to see it that way and the bout was declared a draw.

Thus the pugilistic world was saved another youngster who might have got down to weight and proclaimed himself the potential featherweight monarch.

Mexico City, Oct. 27.—(UP)—Hundreds of soldiers and police were required to clear the way for Jack Dempsey from the railroad station to the hotel when the heavyweight champion arrived here last night, greeted by an enormous throng. Dempsey will give exhibitions here Wednesday and Saturday nights.

SAFE MILK!

Means Only One Kind--

Pasteurized

THE MOST MODERN METHOD OF ELIMINATING POSSIBLE GERMS

Man's Best Food

Can be made Man's Safest Food—and is being made that way right here—every day—by

Pasteurization

Pasteurization does not in any way impair the food value. It does cut the germ contents and proper pasteurization makes milk safe.

Is not the pasteurizing of milk worth looking into?

How Milk Is Pasteurized

It is first sampled and graded for TASTE and QUALITY; then comes the sediment test—the acidity test and is then pumped into pasteurizing vats where it is heated to 145 degrees, held 30 minutes—cooled in the vat to 120 degrees, then pumped back over aircator and cooled to 34 degrees, put through automatic bottler and capper and is ready for your table.

More Facts You Should Know

Pasteurization of milk is under the supervision of State as well as City authorities—every one who handles it is required to have a certificate of health—this method of purifying milk is endorsed by such famous doctors as the Mayo Brothers, large city health authorities, school heads, hospital heads and doctors everywhere. Pasteurization of milk takes nothing from the food content of good milk—it only adds a safeguard to its use in raw form.

TWO BRAINONIAN DELEGATES TO ATTEND A JOURNALISTIC MEET

The Brainerdian is sending two official delegates to the Minnesota High School Press Association—Raymond Anderson and Bob White. They will represent the Brainerd High School and we expect them to come back with new ideas for improving our paper and our Annual. A full program greets them on their arrival, everything from pep tests to banquets and dances and the football game.

The serious part of the meeting includes discussions by experts in journalism, and round table talks where practical suggestions will be exchanged. A full report will be made upon the return of the boys.

Several girls may find it possible to attend the convention, all depending on whether or not they have the opportunity of driving down.

CITY TEACHERS ARE
ROTARY HONOR GUESTS

The annual dinner given to local teachers by the Rotary club was held Friday, October 23, at the Ransford hotel. An interesting program consisting of stunts by teachers of the different schools, a number of speeches, songs, and recitations, and selections by an Italian concert jazz band and by the Arcadian orchestra was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present.

President J. F. Woodhead presided at the events, taking place and Eddie Flynn, former district governor, was the speaker of the evening. There was unusual difficulty in bestowing the prize for the best stunt put on by any group of teachers, because they were all so very good. A compromise was finally agreed upon with which everyone was satisfied.

The dinner served by the Ransford was an excellent one, corresponding with the fine program. Considering the reports made by those who attended the banquet, it must have been an unusually interesting one and the Rotarians are to be congratulated on being such successful hosts.

ALUMNI

The petite school girls we remember are now teaching at the following districts:

Beatrice Guin, '22, at Villard, Minn.

Marie Guin, '22, at Crow Wing.

Gertude Goedderz, '24, at Mille Laes Lake.

Mabel McKay, '24, near Aitkin.

Dora Van Alstine, '24, South Long Lake.

Elizabeth Folsom, '25, is Freshman reporter for the Carletonian, the school paper of Carleton College.

Vivian Gillette, '25, has accepted a position as secretary for the manager of Service Utility—Cleveland, Ohio.

Who? What? Where?

Miss Huntley's Modern History classes all seem to know where to find the spice of life in the Digest.

The third period political economy class had the best average. Mr. Beresford wants to know if any one told them the questions. Of course not! How could he think such a thing?

At last the champion girls' Basketball pennant hangs in its rightful place—Miss Schow's Junior Assembly. We certainly are glad to see it there because the girls certainly worked hard for it.

Albert Rathert, our last year's editor-in-chief of the Brainerdian, has had two articles printed in the Minnesota Daily, a "U" paper. Good for you, Al. Elizabeth Folsom is having similar success on the Carletonian.

A number of the faculty went down to see the Notre Dame game—Miss O'Brien, Miss Cedarstrand, Miss Bowers and Mr. Beresford.

Last Tuesday in the assembly during the seventh period, a great many hands were darting first to right, then to left. After a minute of thought spectators came to the conclusion that those students were bringing back the stray thoughts.

Mr. Schaumburg has played the part of a gallant hero. A poor belated dog strayed into the assembly and terrified the weak-hearted girls. Mr. Schaumburg grabbed the poor canine and dragged him out most gracefully.

A committee of four is appointed in each Modern History class to make the assignment for the class "The Literary Digest." Hope they give us something easy.

EDITORIAL

Undoubtedly everyone of the students has noticed the new poster which was put up on the bulletin board in the hall last week; most of the students have read it and have understood the morals it was intended to convey and perhaps most of them have taken it seriously and have resolved to abide by its principle; at least it is to be hoped that the majority have.

For the benefit of those who have not noticed it I will try to describe it. It shows a drawing of a boy, who of course represents the average student, who has saluted the flag in the morning and then has broken one of the windows of the building and is being chided by Uncle Sam.

The picture applies not only to the breaking of a window but to any injury done to the property of the town, in this case the school building, and shows that a boy who perhaps saluted the American flag and has all the outward aspects of a good citizen is not a good citizen in the eyes of Uncle Sam or our government and people if he does not by his actions show that he respects the property of the city as well as that of his own or of his friends especially when it is put there for him as in the case in the school building. Therefore, we might draw the conclusion from this poster that any student who purposely destroys or maims anything not belonging to him is not a good citizen no matter what he may do outwardly to demonstrate his patriotism.

REPORT CARDS

"Ooooh! This is the red letter day of my life." Thus vociferates the overworked student as the pedagogues stop the crimson liquid over his report card. For last Tuesday was the day the six-weekly portions of A's, E's, etc., were dishied out.

By many, report card day is considered a major event. A student devoted most of his time and energy to school. During all his waking hours his thoughts center around it. School must be considered before everything else. It is his business around which all other things revolve. Therefore his degree of success as measured by the teachers proves of the greatest interest to him.

IN MUDDY BATTLE

The locals were set back for another defeat Friday by Crosby, on the latter's field, 22 to 6. The first of the series of two games. The locals carried the grudge into the Crosby field and fought hard but were unable to overcome the range team's fast charging offense led by Johnstone and Wescott. A slippery, muddy field also slowed the game up and prevented any real fast work.

Brainerd played without two regulars, Finne and Koop, while Crosby was without the services of Pomeroy, star end.

Crosby started the scoring, early in the first period when after advancing far into Brainerd territory, they kicked a goal by placement which was good for three points. Crosby then kicked off to Brainerd who punted back to Crosby after having failed in three attempts. Crosby began its march down the field and shortly after went across the line for a touchdown. Johnstone kicked for the extra point. Crosby again kicked off to Brainerd, who advanced the ball into Crosby's territory but lost the ball on a fumble. Crosby started another walk down the field and it looked like another touchdown but Marshall intercepted a pass on Brainerd's fifteen yard line and with a quickly formed interference by Tribur and Lawrenz ran eighty-five yards for a touchdown, the only Brainerd score. Welliver failed to make the extra point. The first period ended with Crosby 10, Brainerd 6.

At the start of the second period Crosby kicked off to Brainerd who was unable to gain and lost the ball to Crosby on downs. About the middle of the second quarter Crosby went across the line for their second touchdown after a series of line plays, Johnstone again failing to make the extra point. Crosby kicked to Brainerd who began a charge down the field that Crosby was unable to stop.

Welliver went through the line for twelve yards, Marshall caught a pass that was good for ten yards, Gile went through the line for ten yards. This mad rush for a touchdown was only stopped when Johnstone intercepted a pass on his own goal line. The game ended shortly after, with the ball in Brainerd territory, Crosby 22, Brainerd 6. Creger, playing his first game, showed up well, getting through the line and stopping many Crosby plays before they were started.

The following is the line-up for Friday's game:

Brainerd	Crosby
Greener	I.e. Carr
Creger	L.t. Christenson
Hohman	I.g. Maghan
Echelm	c. Chupich
Mraz	r.g. Oberg

A business meeting was held by the Sophomores, on Thursday. After an informal discussion as to the matter of class dues it was decided a be—monthly fee of 25 cents had been charged. When this question had been settled, considerable time was spent in deciding the nature of their first social activity. In keeping with this season a Halloween masquerade party was chosen.

The Gateway of the Ten Thousand Lakes greeted two of the last year's members of the faculty, Miss Jorandby and Miss Larson. They were fairly swept off the bus with ecstasies of delight.

Saturday morning the town was post mortem as usual, so they decided that something must be done to "breeze" up the town. Well, breezy was right. They attended a picnic on the banks of Father-Mississippi and ate a lunch with fur robes on. Ten partially frozen people enjoyed themselves until their joints cracked, and thence packed up and sat over the furnace until lunch hour. In the P. M. they rushed down to the natural amphitheatre to witness the battling "Blue and Whites." But when a natural wall of human beings surrounded them, the game was barred from their sight. They were thoroughly monopolized by all who just had to tell them of some funny incident. After the game they were whisked off—somewhere—nobody knows.

Not having seen a real good show since they left here, they attended "Little Annie Rooney," and Miss Jorandby said she had played such pranks, but Miss Larson said she used to beat 'em all up, Jews, negroes, and all.

Sunday morning they were going to be real good by attending Sunday school. It was a fine turnout and Rev. Eversz said the class had increased 100 per cent. Kay Nolan hurried from her church over to attend the Methodist Sunday school. She brought ravishing tales of Bus Lowe's perfect conduct and intelligence.

Michael's entertained them at a dinner Sunday noon, where Miss Larson did justice to more than her share and felt wholly gluttonous.

Mr. Johnson and Mr. Schaumburg drove them down to Little Falls, where they took a bus to Anoka. We hope they enjoyed themselves as much as we enjoyed their visit.

ATTEND A JOURNALISTIC MEET

The Brainonian is sending two official delegates to the Minnesota High School Press Association. Raymond Anderson and Bob White. They will represent the Brainerd High School and we expect them to come back with new ideas for improving our paper and our Annual. A full program greets them on their arrival, everything from pep fests to banquets and dances and the football game.

The serious part of the meeting includes discussions by experts in journalism, and round table talks where practical suggestions will be exchanged. A full report will be made upon the return of the boys.

Several girls may find it possible to attend the convention, all depending on whether or not they have the opportunity of driving down.

CITY TEACHERS ARE

The annual dinner given to local teachers by the Rotary club was held Friday, October 23, at the Ransford hotel. An interesting program consisting of stunts by teachers of the different schools, a number of speeches, songs, and recitations, and selection by an Italian concert jazz band and by the Arcadian orchestra was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present.

President J. F. Woodhead presided at the events, taking place and Eddie Flynn, former district governor, was the speaker of the evening. There was unusual difficulty in bestowing the prize for the best stunt put on by any group of teachers, because they were all so very good. A compromise was finally agreed upon with which everyone was satisfied.

The dinner served by the Ransford was an excellent one, corresponding with the fine program. Considering the reports made by those who attended the banquet, it must have been an unusually interesting one and the Rotarians are to be congratulated on being such successful hosts.

ALUMNI

The petite school girls we remember are now teaching at the following districts:

Beatrice Guin, '22, at Villard, Minn.
Marie Guin, '22, at Crow Wing.
Gertrude Goedderz, '24, at Mille Lacs Lake.
Mabel McKay, '24, near Aitkin.
Dora Van Alstine, '24, South Long Lake.
Elizabeth Folsom, '25, is Freshman reporter for the Carletonian, the school paper of Carleton College.
Vivian Gillette, '25, has accepted a position as secretary for the manager of Service Utility—Cleveland, Ohio.

Who? What? Where?

Miss Huntley's Modern History classes all seem to know where to find the spice of life in the Digest.

The third period political economy class had the best average. Mr. Beresford wants to know if any one told them the questions. Of course not! How could he think such a thing?

At last the champion girls' Basket Ball pennant hangs in its rightful place—Miss Schow's Junior Assembly. We certainly are glad to see it there because the girls certainly worked hard for it.

Albert Rathert, our last year's editor-in-chief of the Brainonian, has had two articles printed in the Minnesota Daily, a "U" paper. Good for you, Al. Elizabeth Folsom is having similar success on the Carletonian.

A number of the faculty went down to see the Notre Dame game—Miss O'Brien, Miss Cedarstrand, Miss Bowers and Mr. Beresford.

Last Tuesday in the assembly during the seventh period, a great many hands were darting first to the right, then to left, after a minute of thought spectators came to the conclusion that those students were bringing back the stray thoughts.

Mr. Schaumburg has played the part of a gallant hero. A poor belated dog strayed into the assembly and ferried the weak-hearted girls. Mr. Schaumburg grabbed the poor canine and dragged him out most graciously.

A committee of four is appointed in each Modern History class to make the assignment for the class "The Literary Digest." Hope they give us something easy.

EDITORIAL

Undoubtedly everyone of the students has noticed the new poster which was put up on the bulletin board in the hall last week; most of the students have read it and have understood the morals it was intended to convey and perhaps most of them have taken it seriously and have resolved to abide by its principle; at least it is to be hoped that the majority have.

For the benefit of those who have not noticed it I will try to describe it. It shows a drawing of a boy, who of course represents the average student, who has saluted the flag in the morning and then has broken one of the windows of the building and is being chided by Uncle Sam.

The picture applies not only to the breaking of a window but to any injury done to the property of the town, in this case the school building, and shows that a boy who perhaps saluted the American flag and has all the outward aspects of a good citizen is not a good citizen in the eyes of Uncle Sam or our government and people if he does not by his actions show that he respects the property of the city as well as that of his own or of his friends especially when it is put there for him as is the case in the school building. Therefore, we might draw the conclusion from this poster that any student who purposely destroys or maims anything not belonging to him is not a good citizen no matter what he may do outwardly to demonstrate his patriotism.

"Ooooh! This is the red letter day of my life." Thus vociferates the overworked student as the pedagogues sloop the crimson liquid over his report card. For last Tuesday was the day the six-weekly portions of A's, E's, etc., were dishied out.

By many, report card day is considered a major event. A student devoted most of his time and energy to school. During all his waking hours his thoughts center around it. School must be considered before everything else. It is his business around which all other things revolve. Therefore his degree of success as measured by the teachers proves of the greatest interest to him.

Semper Paratus Club

Monday, October 19, the girls' section of the Semper Paratus debate and public speaking club held a meeting at which officers were elected. Miss Oerting, the society's head, suggested that the president be not only one interested in the work, but also a girl who would work with her all the year. Margaret Jones was chosen president with vice-president, Viola McKay as her first assistant. Esther Gallagher was elected secretary. It was decided that two treasurers would be necessary because of the fact that when plays or programs are given, the work would be too difficult for one person. Alta Storm was elected treasurer and Gladys Holvick assistant treasurer. Lucille Roark was chosen as reporter of the club.

BANKER IS A GOOD SAMARITAN

R. G. Harte of Pequot Aids Victims in Auto Accident Near Mills Lake

2 MEN SERIOUSLY INJURED
Car Wrecked, 2 Unconscious, When Auto Left Road and Smashed Into Large Tree

R. G. Harte, Pequot banker, played the good samaritan to victims of an automobile accident which occurred late Sunday night near Mills Lake, in which two men were seriously injured and the car badly damaged.

Mr. Harte was returning from Brook Park and was stopped by two men and two women, who said they had heard groning along the road nearby, but hesitated to investigate without more help.

All went back to the spot and found an automobile wrecked and the two occupants lying on the ground some distance away, unconscious, evidently having been thrown from the car with considerable force.

One of the men was revived sufficiently to say that his name was Miller, and that he resided in Minneapolis, but he relapsed into unconsciousness again before telling the other man's name.

Mr. Harte assisted in getting the victims to a nearby farm house, and called a physician before continuing on his way to Pequot. It is believed that the injured men were taken to Altkin for treatment.

The car that they were driving had left the road and struck a large tree with sufficient force to throw the occupants clear of the machine, and to push the motor back several feet along the frame of the car.

It is believed that the victims were driving to the northern lakes on a hunting trip, traveling at night so that they might be at their destination for early morning shooting.

DR. EVERT IN MONTANA

Former Brainerd Physician Now Chief Surgeon N. P. Hospital at Glendive

The Glendive, Montana paper carries the following article on the arrival of Dr. J. A. Evert, former Brainerd physician, who is the new chief surgeon at the Northern Pacific hospital in Glendive, succeeding Dr. Beach, who has been transferred to Tacoma, Washington:

Dr. J. A. Evert, the new chief surgeon in charge of the local Northern Pacific hospital, arrived in Glendive a few days ago and is busy unpacking his household goods.

In an interview he stated that he was most favorably impressed with Glendive, the hospital and its corps of workers and anticipated a most pleasant sojourn here. He has already met a good many Glendive people and found them most pleasant and cordial.

Dr. Evert is married and has three children, two boys, aged 8 and 5 and a girl baby seven weeks old. His family will arrive within a short time.

Kentucky is his native state although he lived in New Jersey most of his life until young manhood, when his parents removed to Minnesota. He was graduated from McAlister College of St. Paul with a degree of B. A. in 1910 and from the University of Minnesota with the degree of M. D. in 1913 since which time he has been connected with the N. P. B. A., eight years at Brainerd, and five years in St. Paul, where he was recently assistant chief surgeon. Since 1919 he has been a Fellow in the American College of Physicians and Surgeons.

During the World War he served in the army of the United States in department of neurology of the Medical Corps. He is a Mason, Knight Templar and Shriner.

LANTERN TOP SUPPLY SHORT

Cancel Delay in Completing Brainerd's New Lighting System

EXPECTED TOPS IN 2 WEEKS

Has Also Been Found Necessary to Buy Additional Reels of Lead Covered Cable

Completion of the new street lighting system has been delayed by the inability of the factory to furnish the opalescent glass panels that are used in the lantern tops. A telegram received by the Water & Light Board last week, was to the effect that the glass would be shipped immediately and should arrive in Brainerd in about two weeks.

It was also found necessary to purchase several additional reels of lead covered cable and as these must be shipped from the eastern factory, it may take a little longer to complete the installation of the lights on South Sixth street.

The old cast iron posts have had their tops saved off and the Brainerd Foundry has made an extension of about two feet to take the place of the portion formerly occupied by side arms and top lights. These posts are being installed on South Sixth street below Oak.

New Buck Jones Film A Thriller

Buck Jones comes back to the Lyceum tonight in "The Timber Wolf" an exciting story of the big timber. Incidentally, "action" is the word. There is plenty of it and in every form—hard riding, thrilling fights, romance and, oh boy, everything.

"The Timber Wolf" is an adaptation of Jackson Gregory's novel of the same name and is a story of the timber and gold country. It was adapted by John Stone and directed by W. S. Van Dyke.

The ladies aid of the First Baptist church will be entertained on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Mrs. Walter Minske and Mrs. A. L. Nelson at the home of Mrs. Minske, 702 south 5th street. Members come and enjoy an afternoon together. Visitors are welcome at any time.

FARMER OPPOSED TO GOOD ROADS

RECITES DIFFICULTIES

Order to Show Cause Delivered to Sheriff to Serve on Henry Johnstone

Apparently there is one farmer in Crow Wing county who is opposed to good roads. Evidently he does not own one of Henry Ford's "Lizzies." He is Henry Johnstone of the town of Ideal where he has been living for about two years.

As presented by the complaint and affidavit of the town board these conditions are alleged. Last summer the town board laid out a town road across his land. He gave the town a release for damages. When the crew that was building the road got to his land to brush it out, he stopped them. It is alleged, with a shotgun and threatened to kill anybody who put a foot on his land. The crew stopped, of course, and the town board went down to see him and he met them with the same threat. It is alleged.

The new road intersects with an old road right close to his house. One day last summer, this old road was being dragged and Johnstone came out of the house, stopped the driver of the drag, made a mark across the road and it is alleged told the driver if he came past that mark, he would kill him. As a result of his numerous threats, he has nearly everyone in the town "buffaloed." Recently, he prepared to erect a fence across this old road on his line.

Yesterday the town board got from Judge W. S. McClenahan of the district court an order restraining him from molesting or interfering with the construction or maintenance of the road. The order to show cause has been delivered to the sheriff for service on Johnstone and it is returnable November 3rd.

BANKER IS A GOOD SAMARITAN

R. G. Harte of Pequot Aids Victims in Auto Accident Near Mills Lake

2 MEN SERIOUSLY INJURED

Car Wrecked, 2 Unconscious, When Auto Left Road and Smashed Into Large Tree

R. G. Harte, Pequot banker, played the good samaritan to victims of an automobile accident which occurred late Sunday night near Mills Lake, in which two men were seriously injured and the car badly damaged.

Mr. Harte was returning from Brook Park and was stopped by two men and two women, who said that they had heard groaning along the road nearby, but hesitated to investigate without more help.

All went back to the spot and found an automobile wrecked and the two occupants lying on the ground some distance away, unconscious, evidently having been thrown from the car with considerable force.

One of the men was revived sufficiently to say that his name was Miller, and that he resided in Minneapolis, but he relapsed into unconsciousness again before telling the other man's name.

Mr. Harte assisted in getting the victims to a nearby farm house, and called a physician before continuing on his way to Pequot. It is believed that the injured men were taken to Atkin for treatment.

The car that they were driving had left the road and struck a large tree with sufficient force to throw the occupants clear of the machine, and to push the motor back several feet along the frame of the car.

It is believed that the victims were driving to the northern lakes on a hunting trip, traveling at night so that they might be at their destination for early morning shooting.

Dr. J. A. Evert, the new chief surgeon in charge of the local Northern Pacific hospital, arrived in Glendive a few days ago and is busy unpacking his household goods.

Dr. Evert is married and has three children, two boys, aged 8 and 5 and a girl baby seven weeks old. His family will arrive within a short time.

LANTERN TOP SUPPLY SHORT

Causes Delay in Completing Brainerd's New Lighting System

EXPECTED TOPS IN 2 WEEKS

Has Also Been Found Necessary to Buy Additional Reels of Lead Covered Cable

Completion of the new street lighting system has been delayed by the inability of the factory to furnish the opalescent glass panels that are used in the lantern tops. A telegram received by the Water & Light Board last week was to the effect that the glass would be shipped immediately and should arrive in Brainerd in about two weeks.

It was also found necessary to purchase several additional reels of lead covered cable and as these must be shipped from the eastern factory, it may take a little longer to complete the installation of the lights on South Sixth street.

The old cast iron posts have had their tops sawed off and the Brainerd Foundry has made an extension of about two feet to take the place of the portion formerly occupied by side arms and top lights. These posts are being installed on South Sixth street below Oak.

Realizing that he was completely out of hand and that further argument was futile, Roulletta Kirby settled herself to wait. In spite of her misery it never occurred to her to abandon her father to his own devices, even for an hour—she knew him too well to run that risk. But her very bones were frozen and she shivered wretchedly as she held her shoes up to the stove. Although the fire began slowly to dry her outer garments, the clothes next to her flesh remained cold and clammy. Even so, their chill was as nothing to the icy dread that paralyzed the very core of her being.

Pierce Phillips told himself that this had been a wonderful day—an epoch-making day—for him. Lately he had been conscious that North was working a change in him, but the precise extent of that change, even the direction it was taking, had not been altogether clear; now, however, he thought he understood. He had been quite right, that first hour in Dyea, when he told himself that life lay just ahead of him—just over the Chilkoot. Such, indeed, had proved to be the case. Yes, and it had welcomed him with open arms; it had ushered him into a new and wondrous world. His hands had fallen to men's tasks, experience had come to him by leaps and bounds. In a rush he had emerged from groping boyhood into full maturity; physically, mentally, morally, he had grown strong and broad and brown. Having abandoned himself to the tides of circumstance, he had been swept into a new existence where Adventure had rubbed shoulders with him, where Love had smiled into his eyes. Danger had tested his mettle, too, and today the final climax had come. What roused his deepest satisfaction now was the knowledge that he had met that climax with credit. Tonight it seemed to him that he had reached full manhood, and in the first rush of realization he assured himself that he could no longer drift with the aimless current of events, but must begin to shape affairs to his own ends.

More than once of late he had pined for a certain thought, and now having arrived at a decision, he determined to act upon it. Ever since that stormy evening at Linderman his infatuation for Hilda had increased, but, owing to circumstances he had been thwarted in enjoying its full delights. During the daylight hours of their trip, as a matter of fact, the two had never been alone together even for a quarter of an hour; they had scarcely had a word in confidence, and in consequence he had been forced to derive what comfort he could from a chance look, a smile, some infection of her voice. Even at night, after camp was pitched, it had been little better, for the thin walls of her canvas shelter afforded little privacy, and, being mindful of appearances, he had never permitted himself to be alone with her very long at a time—only long enough, in fact, to make sure that his happiness was not all a dream. A vibrant protestation now and then, a secret kiss or two, a few stolen moments of delirium, that was as far as his love-affair had progressed. Not yet had he and Hilda arrived at a definite understanding; never had they thoroughly talked out the subject that engrossed them both, never had they found either time or opportunity in which to do more than sigh and whisper and hold hands, and as a result the woman remained almost as much of a mystery to Pierce as she had been at the moment of her first surrender.

It was an intolerable situation, and so, under the spell of his buoyant spirits, he determined to make an end of it once for all. The Countess recognized his step when he came to her tent and she spoke to him. Mistaking her greeting for permission to enter, he untied the strings and stepped inside, only to find her unprepared for his reception. She had made her shelter snug, a lively fire was burning, the place was fragrant of pine boughs, and a few deft feminine touches here and there had transformed it into a boudoir. Hilda had removed her jacket and waist and was occupied in combing her hair, but at Pierce's unexpected entrance she hurriedly gathered the golden shower about her bare shoulders and voiced a protest at his intrusion. He stood smiling down at her and refused to withdraw.

Never had Phillips seen such an alluring picture. Now that her hair was undone, its length and its profusion surprised him, for it completely mantled her, and through it the snowy whiteness of her bare arms, folded protectively across her rounded breasts, was dazzling. The sight put him in a conquering mood; he strode forward, lifted her into his embrace, then smothered her gasping protest with his lips. For a long moment they stood thus.

SPIRITED BUYING

New York, Oct. 27.—Today's market showed no important variations from other sessions of the current 2,000,000 share days. Spirited buying operations went ahead in a number of recognized leaders of the forward movement and the general list continued to display indications of abundant vitality notwithstanding the tremendous volume of the trading.

Some profit taking caused a slackening of pace in the afternoon following an advance in call money to 5 per cent compared with a renewal rate of 4½ per cent. This tightening was accompanied by vague rumors regarding possibility of an advance in the Bank of England rate on Thursday to check the outward flow of British gold. But if such a step is contemplated in London it has nothing to do with the slightly higher cost of demand funds at this center, which was earlier traceable to preparations to meet end of the month requirements.

Consequently most of the realizing sales were undoubtedly attributable to an understandable desire on the part of the many traders to cash in on some of the handsome paper profits accruing from the market's uprush over the last 10 days.

The market closed lower.

AIM TO END GAMBLING IN COTTON AND GRAIN

Washington, Oct. 27.—Endorsement for adoption by congress of a measure to put "an end to gambling in cotton and grain" on the exchange, was begun here today by Senator Caraway, democrat, Arkansas. He charged that the government crop estimates are being unfairly used by speculators. Caraway claims that the farmers of the south lost $250,000,000 by the census bureau report of cotton statistics October 1 and the report yesterday may increase this loss by $100,000,000. Cotton dropped $6 a bale after an optimistic report yesterday.
